APPOINTED BY THE MAYOR

Enslow as sheriff of White Pine county, who had previously served as city marshal, there was a vacancy in that office the first of the year, which was filled by the appointment of William Moorman to succeed the former chief. Mr. Moorman is an old-time peace officer.

BIG PLANS PUTTING HASBROUCK
IN THE PRODUCING CLASS SOON

Energetic work is about to begin on the Hasbrouck group, situated in the Gold Mountain district, with the object of placing that holding in shape for production. The company has been well financed for the campaign, as stated by George A. Kernick, the president, who arrived from the coast this morning to initiate developments. The shaft will be timbered the full depth of 400 feet and a crosscut will be started from the bottom to pick up the ledges cropping on the surface and also being developed in the tunnel. The lower crosscut will be directed to picking up the ledge which John Y. McKane opened on the 180-foot level. It is expected that the first ledge will be encountered at 150 feet and continue on for 1000 feet to crosscut all three ledges on the property. The company also will develop the ledge found on the 180 level which carries low values but from which samples running as high as $40 in gold and silver have been taken. In the tunnel the work has advanced for 300 feet and it is expected that the big ledge will be struck here at about another 150 feet. They are now getting stringers with small values which should increase as the tunnel approaches where the ledge is looked for. The exact distance cannot be estimated as there never has been a survey to determine the true dip. President Kernick is arranging to install a compressor and also to begin shipping from the first ledge at 520 feet from the portal, from which over 1000 tons were taken in former years. This vein is between 2 1/2 and 3 feet and carries an average of $50 in gold and silver.

"The prospects of the Divide opening into a big shipping camp is occupying the attention of all mining men on the coast who are ready to jump in and take advantage of investing in that quarter. The future of silver is brighter today than ever before and, as Frank Manson, of the Western Ore Purchasing company, told me yesterday in Reno, the insiders expect to see silver selling for $125 an ounce in the next six months."

SPEARHEAD HOLDS NEVADA LAW MAKERS
ANNUAL MEETING

The Spearhead Gold Mining company held its annual meeting yesterday in Reno and re-elected the old officers with the exception of Claude Smith, who retired as director and was succeeded by A. A. Hussey, of Oakland, who was connected with some of the big properties of the camp during the boom period. The stockholders were represented by the largest list of proxies ever voted at an annual meeting and the great interest was manifested in the future of the company. President George A. Kernick reported that the raise undertaken shortly after the recent strike had been temporarily abandoned after going up 125 feet without reaching the contact, owing to bad air conditions. Operations are now being conducted from a point in the raise about 15 feet above the level where the vein, 2 1/2 to 3 feet in width, lying flat, with values averaging $150 a ton, is being drifted on. This is the vein which created the sensation and caused the phenomenal rise in the stock. The company is also crosscutting on the 910 level about 80 feet from the first raise where there is a four-foot ledge averaging $24 from which shipments will be made. Another raise will be opened in any direction through this mass of quartz.

ROUND MOUNTAIN CO.
DENIES RUMORED PLANS

I. D. Gordon, president and general manager of the Round Mountain Mining company, writes the Bonanza denying statements circulated with reference to the policies of that company. Mr. Gordon wishes it understood that the leaders have not been notified to clean up to permit of the company resuming on the first of March; that the mill has not handled 100 tons a day and there is no present plan for enlarging the scope of operations. The statement that the Jackling interests have had an option is met with the flat statement that neither Jackling nor any one else has had an option on the property for the past five years. For the same reason the Jackling interests could not have applied to the securities issue committee for authority to issue securities based on the sale

BLUEJACKETS AT ROME RECEPTION

(By Associated Press)
ROME, Jan. 22.—A contingent of 200 American sailors, who arrived Tuesday, were enthusiastically received. The minister of the navy gave a luncheon to the American officers.

AT THE AIRDOME

Dance at the Airdome every Saturday night. Mail us favorite selections before Friday of each week and the orchestra will play them Saturday night. If we have not got them we will get them. We want to please you. adv3177

When you see it in the Bonanza you know it is true. There is no comeback on either telegraphic or local news.

HALF-DAY SESSIONS OF GRADE CLASSES

Owing to the improved local conditions and with consent of the board of health the school trustees have decided to extend the time for classes. Instead of holding short sessions of an hour for each squad of six or eight pupils half day sessions will be held giving each pupil a full half-day instruction with the understanding that the other half is to be devoted to study at home. By this means the trustees believe they can make up for part of the lost time and not be compelled to ask the teachers to remain all day Saturday as proposed.

HOW WILL CHURCH
GET WINE HE ASKS

BAITMORE, Jan. 22.—Cardinal Gibbons in a statement issued last night makes a plea that wine may be obtained for sacramental purposes.

"We have 20,000 Catholic clergymen in the United States who every day offer the sacrament of the mass," he says. "How can they perform this duty if they do not obtain wine? I know it will be replied to that wine is permitted for sacramental purposes. I cannot see how this will be if the manufacture, sale and importation of wine is prohibited."

"The law of prohibition strikes the individual liberty of worship. I have always been in favor of the strict regulation of the manufacture and sale of liquor instead of absolute prohibition, because, by strict regulation, the liberty of individuals is preserved, whereas, by prohibition we face legislation which in the long run cannot be carried out and an early result of prohibition will be the secret and illicit manufacture and sale of bad liquors, whereby the government will be deprived of a large revenue besides being put to enormous expense in the employment of agents to enforce the law."

"Moreover, in the carrying out of the law I see also an invasion of the home, which up to now all men have agreed is a sacred and holy place. These agents may enter our homes with the violence of burglars and the immunity of officers of the law."

INCOME TAX DRIVE
NOW IN FULL SWING

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—The big income tax drive of 1919 is now underway and shortly will be in full swing, it was announced by Collector of Internal Revenue Justus S. Wardell here today. It is estimated that $150,000,000 will be collected in the first California district.

"I am not waiting for the final passage of the new revenue bill by congress," said Collector Wardell, "nor for the new regulations and blanks to be issued. To get this big act in and get it accurate and complete, I urge that we all begin now. Anything that congress does now will not affect the amount of a person's earnings for 1918. The old year is done; all its fruits are gleaned; and every person who fared well, or earned a good competence, must analyze his own case in cold figures."

"The year 1918 was a banner year for salaries and wages, and the high war prices brought unusual profits to the average small tradesman and to the farmer. I am told that the opinion in Washington is that a million citizens and residents will make this year their first income tax returns."

"All signs indicate that the income tax this year will reach nearly every working man and woman, and nearly every merchant, shopkeeper and farmer. Not all will have to pay the tax, but nearly all will be obliged to make a sworn statement."

INDOOR SPORTS AT AIRDOME TONIGHT

A big treat in the way of indoor sports is in store for the people of Tonopah this evening at the Airdome, where another benefit for the sufferers of the Near East countries will be given under the auspices of the local Armenian-Syrian relief committee. The benefit performance this time is to be a carnival of sports, to be followed by a jitney dance.

The main event of the evening will be a sizzling basketball game between two of the fastest teams which have played in Tonopah for some time. The second attraction will be a harum-scarum indoor baseball game between a couple of outfits who will try their best to amuse the spectators, but will nevertheless go after each other's scalps in the true fashion of warriors of the diamond.

The one big prize for all contestants, in going after the winning scores, is to realize the largest possible sum from the proceeds for the benefit of the relief committee. This is surely a worthy prize to strive for. Tickets for the game will be sold today around town and at the door this evening for 25 cents each. So it doesn't cost much to buy a ticket, even if you do not attend the games. The crowd ought to be big. The bigger, the better, of course.

First game will be called at 8:15. The jitney dance after the games will begin probably about 9:30. Bill Young will be on the job with his orchestra to furnish the music.

GOOD DEMAND FOR HOME

AMUSEMENTS

THE BUTLER TODAY

Charles Ray, the Thomas H. Ince star, of "Clodhopper" and "Pinch-hitter" fame, is the central figure of the story of "Playing the Game," which will be shown at the Butler today. It is a story of the southwest. After a prolonged period along the Great White Way in New York, Mr. Ray, as Larry Prentiss, a dissipated son of a millionaire, who had inherited a vast fortune, one night at a dinner party given to some friends, knocked down and apparently killed Hickey Trent, an adventurer. In the belief that he is a murderer, Larry goes to Arizona to begin life anew.

While there he has many adventures, including holdups and other thrilling events, but he finally lands as cowboy upon his own ranch, his identity being unknown to his associates. Here he meets and courts Moya Shannon, the daughter of the manager, and after a series of highly dramatic occurrences, including a highly exciting fist fight with his rival, wins Moya's love. Charles Ray is dear to the picture-going public, and is always sure of receiving a warm reception whenever he appears. Added to the feature will be the Rex Beach travel pictures. Tomorrow, one of the cutest girls in the picture game, Mabel Normand, in "Peck's Bad Girl."

Remember Friday is coming and with it, D. W. Griffith's special production, "The Great Love" to be shown at popular prices.

GOLDFIELD MEN LEASE
TONOPAH LIQUOR CO.

Brown & Carpenter, proprietors of the Bank saloon, Goldfield, have taken a lease on the premises formerly occupied by the Tonopah Liquor company which they will conduct as a club house and soft drink establishment. The new owners come here well recommended as they are among the best known business men of the southern camp and know how to treat their patrons. A trial will convince anybody of this fact.
